HOW YOU CAN HELP:

EMPOWER THE NEXT GENERATION

Invite your children to join Leaders for Tomorrow, our high school advocacy program, or ACCESS, for young professionals, so that they can develop their advocacy skills.

ON CAMPUS

In the face of growing antisemitism and anti-Zionism on university and college campuses, AJC is working with campus leadership, University Presidents, Vice Presidents, and Deans of Student Life, all of whom are responsible for how welcome Jewish students feel in their communities. You can help to create a more hospitable environment on campus by helping AJC to expand its network of connections to these top-level administrators.

IN THE CORPORATE SPHERE

Do you know of a corporation that is interested in sensitizing its employee base to the concerns of Jewish employees as part of their ongoing diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) programming? If so, please let them know that AJC is available to be a trusted resource and to provide customized corporate trainings on the subject.

INVEST

Thank you for your generous support. There are numerous ways you can partner with AJC through targeted investments to fight antisemitism and to shape a brighter Jewish future.

BECOME AN ADVOCATE

Sign up for AJC communications so that you can become a more informed, more skilled advocate and help speak up against antisemitism.
