

AJC CLEVELAND WELCOMES YOU TO A CONVERSATION
FOR PARENTS:

Unpacking Antisemitism - What You and Your Kids Need to Know

Thursday, February 16, 2023

7:00 - 8:30 PM • The Temple - Tifereth Israel, Beachwood

Whether in middle school, high school or on a college campus, being a student today can be challenging under the best of circumstances. And being a Jewish student raises additional complexities. Parenting in these times can seem daunting.

Please join us together with American Jewish Committee (AJC) expert, Dr. Laura Shaw Frank for an interactive discussion on antisemitism and Israel and how we can help our children in high school, college, and beyond become upstanders, well-informed and effective advocates for Israel and the Jewish people.

This conversation and open dialogue will help ensure not only our children are supported as Jewish and pro-Israel advocates, but how we can be empowered ourselves.

Laura Shaw Frank is the Director of the William Petschek Contemporary Jewish Life Department at AJC where she works to ensure the well-being of the American Jewish community. A seasoned and passionate educator with nearly twenty years of experience in high school, university, and adult education, Shaw Frank works extensively on combating antisemitism and increasing Jewish literacy through deep education and advocacy training in many different fora. In addition to her educational and programmatic work, Shaw Frank is a sought-after lecturer and writes extensively on a wide range of subjects of importance to the Jewish community in America. Shaw Frank holds a PhD in Jewish history from the University of Maryland, College Park and undergraduate and law degrees from Columbia University. Prior to beginning her work in the Jewish community, she was a corporate litigator at the firm of Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP.
